Stedman’s Medical Dictionary is the most reliable, must-have resource available for healthcare professionals. It contains more than 107,000 terms and has been thoroughly reviewed by consultants from all the major medical and health science specialties.

How To Search
Access Stedman’s on the STAT!Ref Online homepage by either clicking on the Stedman’s feature box (1) or by clicking the Stedman’s link in the Tool Bar left column (2). It will open in a pop-up window.

An A-Z list (3) directs you to your search term (4). Click on the term to get the definition (5). To open in new window click upper right link (6).

Search With A Term
After accessing Stedman’s Medical Dictionary from the STAT!Ref Online homepage, type in your search term (1). Click go.

All options for your search term will be shown. Click on the option you want defined (2).

The complete Stedman’s Medical Dictionary definition will be presented (3).

You can also receive Stedman’s definitions for any word in a STAT!Ref Online search result. Highlight the word and the Stedman’s definition will pop up (4).